Greetings Traveller

This month we are focusing on Rotorua as a growing conference destination. An award-winning option is Rotorua's new Energy Events Centre - one of New Zealand's largest venues - which can host conferences with more than 5000 delegates all the way down to smaller groups.

Plus you can enter this month's Rotorua Prize Package for two which includes a night's accommodation at Wai Ora Lakeside Spa Resort, a sheep show and farm tour at the Agrodome, a unique sightseeing tour with Rotorua Duck Tours and entry to The New Zealand Caterpillar Experience.

Congratulations to the winner of our December Queenstown Prize Package, Dan Butler.

Rotorua - for your conference

With a wealth of things to see and do, and some great new conference facilities and attractions, it is only natural that Rotorua is fast becoming one of New Zealand's top conference and incentive destinations.

Rotorua has grown in leaps and bounds over the past few years. Extensive investments have been made in the conferencing arena and the Rotorua Convention Bureau has some exciting new incentives to offer business travellers and conference organisers.

New Flights

Rotorua's central location at the heart of the Central North Island has always made it easily accessible from major centres, with regular Air NZ and Qantas connections to all the main cities. New Trans-Tasman flights are expected to start from Rotorua Airport in June 2009, opening up the city to the Australian conference market and providing some great opportunities for pre- and post-conference trips.
